Sir John Monash Commemoration Dinner

Commemorating the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Amiens.

In the final year of the Centenary of ANZAC, we join to celebrate General Sir John Monash's role in World War 1.

Commemorating the decisive Battle of Amiens in which the Australians and Canadians were the 'arrowhead' that changed the direction of the War in the Allies favour. "The beginning of the end!"

This will be a grand night to honour the 100th Anniversary of this pivotal battle and the man behind it.
